Welcome to the first issue of the "Consciousness Of Wealth" Newsletter, where about once a week I'm going to be "Empowering You to Think and Grow Rich" as well as helping you "learn and grow and become a better person"!

Just as a short news item, I'd like to share with you that my web site, CarnegieCentre.com was recently down for three weeks or so.

Actually what happened was a hacker caused data loss at the company that had 90 percent of my Internet presence, including my "Main List", shopping cart and affiliate program.

All of it was gone. What's interesting about all this is I did as I teach others to do and focused on the "Equal or Greater Advantage" within what others have considered "terrible" (perceived adversity).

Think for a minute what you would do if your Internet presence was gone, including the way people pay you - as well as your main people who've been with you for in many cases three or four years or longer.

(It was quite telling to me to hear even very successful friends [whom I thought would know better] say "that's terrible!" - I thought they knew that what they focus on they get more of.)

Instead, my focus was on.... well, read about it yourself in the "Greater Advantage" report I created, which also resulted at the same time from me keeping my eyes tuned in to all the abundance of opportunity around us both at all times.

RECOMMENDED RESOURCE: Get part of the "Greater Advantage" for free, which for the first time reveals how I got more than 95,000 people following me on Twitter.

Get it at <http://www.CarnegieCentre.com/twitter/>

Or if you'd prefer getting the full extent of that Greater Advantage, which also shows you how to make money from all those thousands and tens of thousands of Twitter followers yourself - AND benefit specifically from the wisdom I gained through my empowering focus, go to <http://www.CarnegieCentre.com/TwitterMarketingSuperstar.html>

The point is when something happens that you would not have preferred, you have two choices, one that gets you more of what you don't want, one that empowers you and catapults you more quickly toward exactly what you do want.

1. Dwell on what happened. Feel like a victim. Complain about it. Make excuses. Go into "scarcity/fear/lack". Feel bad about it.
2. Take responsibility for it. Focus on how this was meant to be of service to you. Learn from it. Strengthen your focus on what's important to you. Use it as a springboard to GET INTO MASSIVE ACTION and move - TOTALLY COMMITTED toward what's most important to you.... knowing nothing can stand in your way of fulfilling it!!!!

Please take this very seriously.

Chances are excellent there's something going on in your life that you can apply this to.

Look at both choices again.

See which one speaks to you.

Really feel the difference between "The NonSupportive Choice" and "The Choice of Self-Empowerment".

And make the Decision that will best serve you!

Even without my shopping cart, I still created something powerful that shows that you have the power within you to have the things you want.

Learn about "Simple Manifestation" at <http://www.danklatt.com/SimpleManifestation.html>

Each lesson consists of one of the Simple Truths explained so a child can easily understand it.....

HINT, HINT: You would be doing a young person an important service by giving him or her Simple Manifestation as a gift - or doing it with this person so you both benefit and he or she can be spared the 20-30 years of struggle most people go through before they learn how they're creating their life, each moment.

You might be interested in what the first person to join wrote me after getting Lesson One....

What I appreciated about lesson one is its simplicity. I also appreciate that when I thought about the assignment, I got a surge of good energy in my abdomen and diaphragm area. That happened because of the fact that I know I can get (the specific assignment done) I look forward to completing my assignment first this in the morning

Thanks Dan
Norm (Blondin, Canada)

This is what Norm wrote after I replied (I do ask you in Simple Manifestation to give me your biggest insights and also how you did the creative assignment in each lesson)....

Hey Dan,

My heart is warmed by your response. It feels good to get a nice clear response back. I'm so glad to meet you. Somehow there is something new happening for me and I'm thrilled.

With gratitude
Norm

You'll appreciate how little it costs to do the Simple Manifestation training, which is one of the best I've created.

$ Think $ $ And $ $ Grow $ $ Rich $

Let me also share with you the article I wrote that get's consistently among the best responses.

In fact, my friend Joe Vitale asked for permission to use this article in one of his best-selling books, "Life's Missing Instruction Manual".

Actually, let me share this with you as a video, and this is something very few people have seen.

Go to this page now and I suggest you take good notes on it....

(You'll also see below the video a Think and Grow Rich First that I think you'll really love and almost certainly get a lot out of..... and the special price you'll find at that page - let's just say you'll save a fortune even as the extensive package helps you make a fortune.)

$ Think $ $ And $ $ Grow $ $ Rich $

The last thing I want to talk about today is something I've been having quite a lot of fun with, and I must say it's been really gratifying!

It's been about five years since I've offered to do one-on-one personal prosperity coaching, and if you wanted to work with me individually, my hourly fee was... well, let's just say I've sold cars for less money.

However, with my site and shopping cart gone, one of the opportunities that came to me was a marketing buddy who shared his own experiences offering his coaching services at a fraction of his usual coaching fee.

I thought it would be fun and felt really inspired to do that myself.

So I put it out there and have quite honestly been really enjoying working with the people who took advantage, and I'm getting some great feedback about the difference it's going to be having on the people who jumped at the chance.

For example I just got this today from the most recent person who joined before the cut off....

"Dan, this is Chris in Ohio, and I wanted to take a minute to share my thoughts on the time we spent together on my first call with you. Your passion and altruistic character really resonated with me.

"I could tell you were very much with me in the moment, and I felt a true connection with you. The thoughts you shared made me feel that you cared about helping me break through my barriers, and challenges.

"I have great expectations for what is yet to come, and my ability to project through my blockages and move to a much higher plane of living, as well as being."

- Chris C. from Sylvania, OH.

As I mentioned, I've been having so much fun with this, and now that the people who jumped at the chance for one-on-one coaching with me have been working with me a few weeks and I know the commitment on my time....

I decided I can work with four more people and I'm going to open this up again for a short time.

(Get in soon, by the way, because probably tomorrow I'm going to give members of my InnerCircle who are in this Coaching Program the Video Think and Grow Rich package I spoke of earlier. And they're also going to be getting my "How to Become A Twitter God" and "Twitter Marketing Superstar" package.

(And then probably within a week you would be getting my long-anticipated "30-Day Think And Grow Rich Video Course" that's the third best thing I've created, and will sell for $997 - if you become part of my InnerCircle, too, you'll be getting that as probably the most valuable bonus I could give you.)

This is the original e-mail I sent out.

If this feels important to you, I would seriously take action and join right away.

As I mentioned, I'm going to open it up to four more people and I expect those four people will join me right away today.

(The tangible value to you of just the six months' worth of everything I create I expect will be worth four times more than the small cost of your investment in everything, which gives you weekly access to me for a small fraction of what other coaching clients have paid when I even did personal coaching.)

Read this short message, and join it if you know this would be important for you to be part of.....

Urgent - From Dan

Many of you have been asking for this for over a year.

A way for you to get personal help from me without spending a fortune.

No need to beat around the bush here...

I want to coach you for the next six months.

I want you to get every product I create.

I'm going to help you DESTROY every barrier you're currently facing.

Plus, it's going to be for only 5% of my standard coaching fees.

The catch is that you must qualify and move very quickly - I'm only going to be able to take 40 (4 now) people into this program, as we'll have a lot of interaction.

If this sounds like something you'd like to find out more about, I need you to reply to this message or e-mail me at dan@InnerWealthInstitute.com if you're one of my 84,873 (95,136 now) Twitter followers at <http://www.Twitter.com/DanielKlatt>

Here are the questions that I'd like you to answer:

1. What is your biggest obstacle at this time?
2. How long have you been struggling with it (and what have you done about it; what were the results)?
3. What is your Burning Desire? How important is that to you?

4. What experience do you have with consciously directing your focus, prosperity trainings or personal growth more generally?
5. Most importantly: Why do you feel we would work well together?

I look forward to working with you!

Dan Klatt

I'm looking forward to working with those four additional people, and of course if we're already working together, you know how valuable this coaching is and you're already far more focused and confident you're able to be as rich and happy and well off as you Desire!

Thank you for reading this issue of the "Consciousness Of Wealth" Newsletter.

Look for your next issue in about a week! ☺
